Whether you were, or weren't a fan of Thin Lizzy is by the way side.

Gary Moore was nothing short of a god on a guitar! His effortless playing truly made the guitar sing with such emotion.

He's gone way before his time and left a huge hole!

RIP Gary - Your music plays on...

Couldn't agree more...a true genious of the frets (especially his blues work over the last 20 years or so) and will be missed. Phil and him now jammin' in heaven!
